

2nd global annual symposium on DNS security, stability and resiliency

February 1-3, 2010
Kyoto University
Kyoto, Japan

welcome

On behalf of the entire symposium Steering Committee, we would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Japan and to thank you for sharing your voice in order to improve the security, stability and resiliency of DNS, a core element of today's Internet infrastructure.

We are fortunate to have assembled an excellent group of attendees for this year's edition of the symposium and look forward to working together to forge the road ahead.
